

Conference Presentation: Assessment and reduction of stormwater impacts on aquatic systems

Todd Kraemer recently presented a talk entitled: A Systematic Approach for the Assessment and Reduction of Stormwater Related Impacts to Aquatic Systems for the Stormwater Pollution Runoff Workshop at the 28th Annual Salmonid Restoration Conference 44th Annual AFS Cal-Neva Meeting March 10-13, 2010 Redding Convention Center. Check out the link to the .pdf below to read an outline of Todd's presentation
Kraemer_2009_SRF_Stormwater outfall detection strategy.pdf \(15.05 KB\)